Success at Basepoint Camberley at the launch of a new free event – The Networking Hub

The launch of The Networking Hub held at Basepoint Camberley was a great success. A number of local business people joined the event and are looking forward to future monthly free events.

Key speaker at the event was Amanda Masters from The Surrey Chambers of Commerce who delivered a positive message on how important it is to network to generate more business. Amanda commented that The Surrey Chambers will fully support the event going forward and congratulated Basepoint on the successful launch.

The Networking Hub will give local businesses the opportunity to network free, meet new people and generate new business. Each event will have a key speaker presenting to the members on business ideas and best practice guides.

Karen Williams, Basepoint Camberley's centre manager said: "Networking is really important for small businesses and events like The Networking Hub will assist businesses keeping in touch with no cost involved. Basepoint Business Centre in Camberley is the latest centre to open providing a first class professional image for businesses to work from. I am looking forward to supporting these businesses and welcoming them to our business community which is becoming the talk of the town.

Congratulations to Claire McGinty of Enterprise First who won the business card prize a meeting room with refreshments booking. She very kindly passed this onto Rachel Richardson of Outsourced HR Limited as this was an opportunity to support a small business in the local area.

The next event is scheduled for Friday 17th June 2011 at 12.00 pm – to register email camberley@basepoint.co.uk We urge you to book sooner rather than later to avoid disappointment.

Basepoint Camberley is now open and offers a wide range of flexible business accommodation, ranging from small one to two-person units through to spacious open planned suites. The centre is well located,
