LOCAL RECORD LABEL CELEBRATES KRISTIN'S DEBUT ALBUM SELL-OUT

Media Ministries, a music production firm and record label located at the Exeter Basepoint Business Centre, is celebrating the success of solo songstress Kristin Schweain's debut album on the Media Ministries label, which sold out online the very day it was released.

Kristin [right], who comes from Missouri in the USA and used to perform with girl band ZOEgirl, has seen her debut album Days of Eden fly off the shelves at online store Amazon after it was launched on 4 May. The ten-track recording has also won accolades from industry experts and a number of her songs are already featured on radio station play-lists.

Director of Media Ministries Kevin Wilson said: "We knew Kristin had written an outstanding album and it appears that her work is being warmly received. The album is a very personal journey through Kristin's life and features outstanding tracks to match every mood."

Fans have no need to worry however as Kristin's CD can still be ordered online, plus of course it can be downloaded from iTunes and other music websites. They can also find out more about her and listen to samples of her tracks at www.kristinschweain.com.

Exeter-based Media Ministries — an independent recording company with major distribution rights via Universal Music — has signed up a number of international artistes. The company also runs a music and video production studio and acts as a service provider for training in the music business.
